2021 United Way of South Wood & Adams Counties
Day of Caring Volunteer Waiver

All volunteers under the age of 18 must have a signed waiver by a parent or guardian.
Use this form for groups of youth who have the same guardian (families for example).

Media Release/Waiver of Liability: I understand that I am participating in Day of Caring as a volunteer for a community service organization in south Wood & Adams Counties through United Way of South Wood & Adams Counties. I understand that, as a volunteer, I may be involved in physical activities that have a potential risk of injury. I assume that risk. I agree that I will only perform volunteer activities that I am comfortable doing. I also agree that I will not hold United Way of South Wood & Adams Counties and all of their former and current officers, directors, shareholders and employees, or any of their community service partners responsible or liable for any damage or injury to me or my property as a result of my participation in Day of Caring. I agree to be responsible for my behavior and to indemnify and hold harmless the United Way and all of their former and current officers, directors, shareholders and employees, and their community service partners from any damages or liabilities arising out of my activities as a volunteer in connection with Day of Caring. I also grant full permission for organizers to use photographs or video footage of me in legitimate accounts and promotions of this event.
